

From Kansas.
GOVERNOR SHANNON'S REPORTED RESIGNATION.

The St. Louis Republican publishes the following account dated Thursday evening, June 27—

“I am authorized by Governor Shannon, of Missouri, to inform you that he has decided not to resign. He is here to meet Mrs. Shannon, and to return to Kansas in about four days. He reports all well in Kansas.

THOMAS BARNUM.

THE MURDER OF THE SHAWNEE INDIAN AGENT.

“A report (June 25) of the occurrence of the St. Louis Republican—

“William Gay, the Shawnee Indian agent, was killed about two miles from this place, on Saturday evening, June 25, by three men, who were supposed to be a police agency—but not quite across the line, when the facts of the case, as stated in the affidavit of Gay, seen to-day, are as follows:—

“Gay, on overtaking his father, they asked him if he was a drink; he did so; they then wanted to know if he was a pro-slavery or anti-slavery. Gay answered that he was neither, and that he was a free man.

“The deceased said he was in favor of a free State.

“The three then commenced shooting at him; and he was killed. They then passed through him, and being wounded in several other places.

“The whole community here are indignant at the authors of the foul deed; and every effort has been made, and will be, to bring them to justice. They have no doubt that it is known where they are gone. He can see no objection to the fact that the person for whom it is issued in Missouri, that person for whom it is issued, can get across the State line, into the Territory, tomorrow, and thus for the time evade the law.

“We cannot expect our friends, North and South, to rest assured of that.

“I can here believe that the deed was done for the purpose of obtaining his agency money, in his pocket, which we well know that there was no protection at that time, where the safe is kept. The murderers were hurried off, and the body of the deceased was found. The deceased is pretty badly wounded, but is doing well.

“The deceased was buried in the graveyard at this place, and the body of the deceased was found.

“The deceased is a person of considerable consequence of citizens. In the afternoon, before the meeting, a meeting was held, which passed resolutions condemning the deed and its perpetrators, and expressing sympathy with the deceased.

DAY'S MURDERERS DENOUNCED.

“A meeting of the citizens of Westport was held on the 26th inst., to denounce the murders of Gay. The resolutions adopted ran as follows—

“That we condemn the crime committed near our town by the person of William Gay, late agent for the Shawnee in Kansas, on Saturday afternoon, the 25th; therefore resolved, That this meeting be called upon to express its condemnation of the murder.

“That this murder, as well as other outrages committed in this Territory, upon the persons of free citizens to help maintain the supremacy of the law and bring offenders against them to justice.

“Resolved, That we sympathize with the bereaved family of the deceased, and will attend the funeral this olved, That this being neither the time nor day for energetic measures in ferreting out the murderers, meeting adjourns to meet to-morrow morning at nine

The meeting was then adjourned to the next day, at which time it was moved and resolved that a subscription be opened for the purpose of collecting money for the defense of the assassins. Several hundred dollars were collected for this object.

DISSEMINING OF THE CHICAGO EMIGRANTS.

On Monday, Nov. (June 23,) Correspondence of the Register from Chicago, dated June 22, contains the following:

"Yesterday, about 4 o'clock P. M., information was received here that a body of armed men, from Chicago, had boarded the steamer Star of the West, en route to New Orleans, for the purpose of securing the release of the emigrating danmice to the regular authorities of that territory."

"The news of such an expedition spread rapidly throughout the city, and excited the indignation of our people, and whole community felt that as patriots and good citizens they could not tamely allow such a proceeding to pass without their vigorous interference."

"A large number of citizens, however, for the avowed object of going to murder our friends who have emigrated to the border country of Missouri with the design of settling there."

"About midnight a large crowd congregated at the wharf, anxiously awaiting the arrival of the boat. Before daylight the vessel was surrounded by a committee of citizens twice aboard, and informed them in plain language of the nature of their visit. He immediately ordered the captain to return to his cabin, and inform him of the company he (Andrews) stating to the capt. that there were on board seventy six men, under arms, and that the purpose of their coming was to kill them."

"There had a gun, and it was their determination to keep them."

"The Committee replied that they were satisfied of the fact that the party, that they were recruits of the Government, and that they should be taken up by the army, and sent to Kansas to revive the drooping flag of the free State faction, and that the people of the State should be made aware of what they were doing."

er considerable conversation between the Committee and the leaders of the company, it was agreed that the be taken ashore, placed in the custody of a responbe office he found the safe, and was enabled to move it case, and took it upon deck where the grappling were fastened on, and the prize brought safely to

Upon opening the safe it displayed its contents in perfect state of preservation. There was in the safe $100 in gold, $2,500 in bills of the Government Stock and a large amount of bills on other banks amounting in all to about $50,000. The papers were examined and they revealed that the money was in human bodies, as if it had laid for so many years off with their owners. Of course, all this money was to the persons interested in this wonderful discovery.

Detroit Free Press says:—"The new bills, we are told, are comparatively unmarred by their long imprisonment in the bodies, and are in fact in good condition, unsoiled and defaced, whether so much so as to preclude their identification and redemption we have not ascertained. They are stamped with the name of the Government Stock Bank of Ann Arbor, include no amount received from the bank."

Exciting News from Beaver Islands.

DETROIT, MICH., MAY 26.—(Special Telegram.)—FIFTY-ONE TO FIFTY-THREE "BEAVER ISLANDERS" REVEALED THAT THEY HAD $50,000 IN GOVERNMENT STOCK.

(From the Detroit Advancer, June 30.)

The steamer Michigan arrived from Green Bay, Wis., at 10 o'clock this morning, and for some time has been giving news. On her trip up the Michigan took on board the news, the Deputy Sheriff of that county, Lyman H. Harker, who has been in the prison for some time. Harker, got some of armed men, with some of them taken to Beaver Harbor, for the purpose of arresting some of men who had set fire to certain houses, commencing the depredations on the inhabitants of the islands. At Beaver Harbor five men were arrested, and taken on board the steamer, charged with the depredations on the islands.

At Beaver Harbor, the men were taken to the shore, where they were held by Field and Briggs. Considerable resistance was offered, and it was not until the armed posse of Sheriff leveled their weapons to fire upon those who were resisting, that they were taken to the shore.

er man, whose name is Samuel Wright, inter-to prevent the arrests being made. He proa pistol at one of the officers, but it was im-taken from him, and he was taken on board with his prisoners. The six were brought down to Mackinac and placed in the stocks. The report was that King Strang could not possibly survive. His limbs, from his hips down, were entirely paralyzed. The report that he would recover is thought to be a fiction. The first party of men coming there to make arrests, the two men who had taken Strang also went up on the Michigan and returned to Mackinac. Considerable excitement was created at Mackinac and Washington Harbor against him and his followers, and armed companies are sent out at both places for the purpose of going to Beaver Island to make arrests. A company of men here has been already formed at Washington Harbor, and a company of fifty men at Mackinac. They would probably be sent to the island of Beaver Island. The Michigan, the island, A. R. Williams, of De Tour, was at his house and identified property which had disappeared from him some time previously. Strang had been in a boat stating they had had a revelation from him, and that the United States steamer Michigan never be allowed to enter the port of St. James.

Milwaukee American, of the 24th ult., learns that the men who were arrested at Mackinac, charged with kidnapping King Strang, the Mormon, have since been taken to the Michigan, and that the Michigan has been unmercifully whipped for failing on property. Strang claimed as his own, and that the Mormon never Island were but a band of thieves. When the Michigan returned to Washington Harbor, a party of several hundred men were about for Beaver Island for the purpose of making a raid on the island. From their neighborhood during the past twelve months.
